

Spring has officially sprung, and with it comes the bright promise of April—longer days, blooming gardens, and Easter. Whether you're planting your first seeds of the season, strolling through a sun-dappled park, or catching up with neighbors, this month invites us all to slow down and savor the small joys. So grab your Cadbury Creme Egg Frappuccino and read on for all that's brewing in Oroville.

What's Happening with The Oroville Initiative

Streetscape Planting Day - We are getting ready for spring with our annual planting day. The Streetscape crew will be meeting on Saturday April 26th at 9am at the Depot Museum to plant flowers in downtown Oroville.

Streetscape Spring Showers Bingo Night - The Oroville Grange is hosting bingo on Friday April 11 from 7-9PM. Proceeds benefit Oroville Streetscape. There is also a raffle basket available and tickets are available at Umpqua bank. The winner will be drawn at the Bingo Game. No need to be present to win.

Volunteer Shout-Out - Special thanks to Patty Burns who has been hard at work collecting and confirming all the donations for the annual Oroville Initiative Duck Race fundraiser.
