- What's Blooming?
- What's Happening?
- The Hornet Report

It's February and we are "lovin" on Oroville! This month, we are celebrating by reaching out and making community connections. February is, after all, about love, friendship & of course, football! So before you turn on the game, grab your Cinnamon Heart White Chocolate Mocha and catch up on what's happening in Oroville. Psst! We heard Brickhouse, P&D, and Pastime Brewery are all great places to watch the big game .

What's Blooming? (The Streetscape Update)

Coffee Shop News - Extra, extra read all about it! The Streetscape "Oroville Coffee News" is in print now. We hope to get all the good news out about what's going on every month in downtown Oroville. The Oroville Coffee News is available at select locations: My Place Coffee and Cream, Hometown Pizza, the Local Granola and the Oroville Library.

Hornets Reporting For Duty - Have you heard the local buzz? Turns out Streetscape is not the only group interested in what's happening in downtown Oroville. A group of Oroville High School students in the 21st Century After School Program have formed a school newspaper. These helpful Hornets have been reporting on local community news and downtown businesses and have agreed to be regular contributors to the Coffee News. This month we have included their article on Second Chances Boutique.

Donor Drive - We are "making a list and checking it twice" in anticipation of getting our annual Streetscape donor letter ready for mailing this month. Oroville Streetscape relies on donors like you to fund the flowers and other downtown beautification projects. We hope this newsletter provides information about how donations are being used and what our volunteers are up to. We are always looking for new volunteers and we'd love to see you. Email us at orovillestreetscape@gmail.com if you are interested in helping. PS - We are too busy with our own Valentines to host a meeting this month.

What's Happening in Oroville?

Warehouse Thrift - We are thrilled to see another new business open in downtown Oroville. Warehouse Thrift held its Grand Opening in January. The new store, located at the old Prince's Warehouse at 1412 Ironwood, offers discounted new items like mattresses and second-hand items. With four thrift stores downtown, Warehouse Thrift, Second Chances Boutique, Vicki's Unique Boutique and The Wright Place, looks like Oroville could be a new thrifting destination for those seeking unique items.

May Festival is Going "Under" - Just kidding! This year's Oroville May Festival theme will be "Under The Sea". The application deadline for May Festival royalty was January 20 and selection day is tentatively scheduled for February 25. The May Festival committee is once again encouraging Oroville to "Shine On" in its 2nd annual lip sync/ air band fundraiser so get your airband together! It was a sold out show last year. Check out their Facebook page at "Oroville May Festival" for all the "deets".

Chamber Changes - The Chamber of Commerce has a new website <http://oroville98844.com> and they have been busy updating the business directory. A new Facebook page has also been created "Oroville Washington Chamber of Commerce". The February meeting for the Oroville Chamber of Commerce is February 21 at 6:00 at Umpqua Bank. The upcoming meeting will include the election of officers. Monthly meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month (except when it's Valentine's Day)

February at the Oroville Library - Crafternoon on Wednesdays at 1pm. Bring a project you are working on and get together with other crafters. Knitting, crocheting, beading, and more are welcome! Bring the little ones in to read stories, create a craft, and make friends on Thursdays at 10:30am for Preschool Storytime and on Saturdays at 11am drop by the library for Winter Craft Saturday! All ages are welcome.

A "Variety" Of Ways To Help Oroville Youth - Thursday March 9 at 6:00 at the Brickhouse, the Oroville Scholarship Foundation is hosting a Variety Show and Auction. Doors open at 5PM. Show and auction begin at 6:00PM. What does the foundation do? OSF expands student access to educational opportunities beyond high school through financial assistance and supports Oroville High School graduates in their pursuit of higher education. Since its inception in 1996, the group has provided over $420,000 to Oroville students. Way to go OSF!!!! For more information or to donate go to <https://www.oroillescholarshipfoundation.org/>

Opening Opportunities for Artists in Oroville - After taking a brief hiatus, the Local Granola is kicking off Vendor Saturdays (complete with live music) AND its bimonthly Open Mic Night again. Every second Tuesday from 5:00PM - 8:00PM the Local Granola opens its doors for local musicians, poets (did you notice we love alliteration!) and others to share their talent. So mark your calendar for February 14 & February 28, Guys, this may be the most unique Valentine's date night in Oroville! The Local Granola celebrates its 2 year anniversary in March, providing a retail outlet for local artists, musicians, farmers and vendors to sell and consign goods and services. Stay up to date by requesting their newsletter at thelocalgranola@yahoo.com or on Facebook.

Boosting Baskets - The Booster Club music bingo event at the Brickhouse on January 21 was a success. A fun time was had by all and funds were raised to support Oroville youth. The Oroville Booster Club recently purchased a new Dr. Dish Shooting Machine for the OHS basketball program and is also funding a new "Athlete of the Week" initiative to reward students who are dedicated to their sport.

THE HORNET REPORT

Give Main Street A "Second Chance" - The Second Chances Boutique on Main Street is a great place to find cute clothes and other things. We have been continuously going to Gillian Houlihan's boutique since opening and we still love to shop there. Second Chances opened in August, 2 years ago. It was Gillian's dream to open her own store. Her hours of operation are 10:00 to 5:00 Tuesday through Saturday. Along with great low prices, you can find many things such as clothing, jewelry, and other trinkets. Article written by OHS students Isabella & Allie.

Oroville's "Report" Card - If your Hornet has left the hive but you would still like to know what's happening at our schools, check out "Oroville School District #410" on Facebook. The page has been recently revitalized with regular posts. It's a great way to see all the good stuff going on at Oroville Elementary and OHS. Want to come out and support your Oroville Hornets? You can find out when the next game is at www.orovilleathletics.com

The Hornet Report is made possible with the support of the OHS student newspaper
