

- TOI/ Streetscape Update
- What's Happening May
- The Hornet Report

You know the saying "April showers bring May flowers!" The May flowers are coming and ready to be planted on May 4th just in time for Oroville's May Festival. So grab your tulip cappuccino and read on for what's happening in Oroville this month.

The Streetscape/ TOI Update

Streetscape Planting Day
Saturday May 4 at 9am
@ Depot Museum

Streetscape Update - The new Centennial Park Mural is still in progress. We have been busy patching and painting this past month and are hopeful that the metal siding and final metal artwork of historic silhouettes can be installed in time for May Day. Special thanks to the TOI/Streetscape and community members that assisted in this project! Streetscape has planted two new trees on Main Street: one in honor of Hilary Blacker, on Main Street between Appleway and 14th St, and one in front of the HeadStart school at 1114 Main St. Please join us on Saturday, May 4th at 9AM for Streetscape Planting Day at the parking lot north of the Museum Depot to assist with planting the flower pots and garden beds. Bring gloves, trowel, empty bucket, broom and dustpan. Please call or text Lynn Chapman, 509-560-3174 if you plan to volunteer.

4th Annual Duck Races - The TOI is selling tickets for the 4th Annual Duck Races, taking place Saturday May 11 at 2PM during May Festival. There are over 30+ prizes to be won and proceeds go towards TOI's community improvement projects. Get your tickets at Umpqua, P&D Pub, Oroville Pharmacy & Hometown or on opening day of the Oroville Farmer's Market Saturday, May 4th.

TOI Update - As part of TOI's initiative to promote tourism in Oroville, Osoyoos Lake Veteran's Memorial Park was featured last month by RVLife. The article highlighted the park, local attractions and activities and was distributed to more than 850,000 RVers! Oroville was also a featured sponsor in Wenatchee World's Spring/ Summer Guide. Other TOI projects include installation of concrete picnic tables and finalizing the location of the proposed pickleball courts (hint: look closely for a staked out area in Veteran's Park). Add some extra fun to your summer event? The TOI has a dunk tank available for rent this summer. Please get in touch with orovilletoi@yahoo.com for more information.
